

welcome to caledon

“Caledon has a small town atmosphere yet it's close to Toronto...only 30 minutes against traffic. I still live in Toronto so this is an easy commute. The Region of Peel has a wide range of full services for doctors. This was important in my decision to locate to Caledon.”

Dr. Leo Trigazis is a recent graduate from the University of Toronto's medical school. He has been practicing in Caledon since January 2006.

5 great reasons to practice in Caledon

1 | Financial compensation

Designated as “underserved with support” by the Ministry of Health & Long Term Care. New physicians are eligible for the “Free Tuition Program” providing up to $40,000 and the $15,000 incentive grant over 4 years.

2 | Full-service access

Caledon is close to state-of-the-art facilities such as the new Brampton Civic Hospital (part of the William Osler Campus), Headwaters Health Care Centre in Orangeville, and the new Caledon Hospice. Referral contacts for tertiary care are maintained with hospitals throughout the Greater Toronto Area – all easily accessible from Caledon.

3 | Opportunity for growth

In addition to being full-time family physicians, many doctors in the area are involved in other aspects of healthcare. There are plenty of opportunities in the local healthcare system, and with some creativity and persistence, you can be sure to find your own niche.

4 | Access to computerized office environments

Presently, Caledon physicians and clinic owners are actively recruiting new doctors to cultivate a group practice. Many clinics have gone paperless.

5 | Variety of practice styles

Doctors can practice from the comforts of their own home or in an attractive turn-key group environment. Whatever your preference is, you are sure to find it here.

doctors looking for doctors

Caledon is home to a number of Family Physicians looking to enhance and expand their practice with the addition of another family physician. Please contact us for information.

There are 2 Family Health Groups (FHGs) available to new physicians working in Caledon that provide after care to their patients. Because of the size of the FHG, on call responsibilities are minimal (1-2x per month).

our community

Caledon is located in the Greater Toronto Area, close to major provincial highways (400, 407, 410, 427 and QEW), regional roads (Highways 9, 10 and 50) and only 30 minutes northwest of Toronto Pearson International Airport. It is a community of over 57,000 residents and is the northern most municipality in the Region of Peel.

Caledon is a likeable mix of attractive rural and urban neighbourhoods. The lush foliage that peppers the landscape only hints at our environmental values. Our interest in community protection runs the gamut from safe and reliable road travel, to effective emergency response, to safeguarding our heritage.

Natural features such as the Oak Ridges Moraine and the Niagara Escarpment, the Humber and Credit river valleys, and agricultural land of the Peel Plain create some of the most beautiful vistas in the Greater Toronto Area. An active lifestyle is encouraged by access to a well-maintained trail system, world class golf and recreational venues. A designated equestrian neighbourhood, historic villages, distinguished inns, community festivals and a thriving arts community infuse Caledon with cultural vibrancy.

quality of life

“ In Caledon, anything I want, I can do pretty easily! I'm a big hiker; I can walk 10 minutes and be near some great trails. I enjoy my country lifestyle - and I'm close to Toronto, so I can be in the city for medical conferences and other events. ”

Dr. Barbara Watts graduated from the University of Toronto's medical school in 1982. She has been a physician for 22 years - 11 of which have been in Caledon. Dr. Watts practices out of her home office in Caledon, and also provides medical care for Oliver House - a residential home for patients with chronic psychiatric disorders.

“ Caledon is a great community with wonderful people. The family physician plays a pivotal role in the health and welfare of a community. You really get to know and understand your patients' needs - they are truly appreciative of your care as a family physician. Caledon has many opportunities to develop your unique skill set as a physician. With your enthusiasm, the community can help you bring your aspirations to reality. ”

Dr. Joseph Niedoba has been practicing medicine for 25 years. He has been a family physician in Caledon since 1982. In addition, he is a director for three nursing homes in the area. Dr. Niedoba is involved in a rehabilitation unit at Etobicoke General Hospital and does occupational health medicine at Husky Injection Molding Systems Ltd., at their world headquarters in Caledon. He graduated from the University of Toronto's medical school in 1981, and received his MBA from the Richard Ivey School of Business at the University of Western Ontario in 2000. He has recently computerized his office so that his records are now electronically based.

“ Caledon is a great community to live and work in. I believe the community has a little bit for every taste. I met a very committed and passionate doctor from the area who convinced me to locate to Caledon. It was one of the best decisions I've ever made! ”

Dr. Brindusa Popa immigrated to Canada from Romania in 1999, and began practicing as an International Medical Graduate in Caledon East in 2003. She is excited about practicing as a family physician in Caledon, and looks forward to improving the health care of residents.
