ONTARIO MUNICIPAL BOARD ROCKFORT QUARRY HEARING PUBLIC SESSION

DATE: MONDAY, APRIL 12, 2010

TIMES: 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

LOCATION: CALEDON COMMUNITY COMPLEX
6215 OLD CHURCH ROAD
CALEDON EAST, ON L7C 1J7

The Ontario Municipal Board will conduct a PUBLIC SESSION to hear from persons who wish to address the Board. Any person may attend the public session to provide a short oral submission explaining your comments, concerns or support regarding the applications now before the hearing. This hearing began on September 15, 2009.

The Ontario Municipal Board is considering applications by James Dick Construction Ltd., to amend the Caledon Official Plan and Zoning By-law, and for a limestone quarry licence, on 89 hectares (222 acres) to extract 39 million tonnes of rock. The site is located at the north-east corner of Olde Base Line Road and Winston Churchill Boulevard. (See map for site location).

Any person wishing to speak will be sworn or affirmed and may be subject to questions from the Board and the lawyers who represent the parties at the hearing. The five parties to the hearing are James Dick Construction Ltd., in support, and the Town of Caledon, the Region of Peel, the Credit Valley Conservation Authority, and the Coalition of Concerned Citizens, all opposed to the applications. No decision will be made at this public session.

Any person presenting an oral submission will be asked to provide their name and address to the Board. As well, you should provide a minimum of seven copies of a written summary of your submission. Your written submission should be provided at the beginning of your presentation to the Board, and need not be submitted in advance.
