CALEDON'S 2011 ENVIRONMENTALIST OF THE YEAR NAMED

In recognition of their contribution to the protection of Caledon's natural environment over the last 13 years, Caledon's Environmental Advisory Committee (CEAC) has chosen The Coalition of Concerned Citizens (CCC) as the Environmentalist of the Year for 2011.

"The CCC was formed by ordinary residents with a strong belief in their environmental cause," said Mayor Marolyn Morrison. "Their commitment to the preservation of our natural environment and heritage is an inspiration to all."

As recipient of the Environmentalist of the Year, CCC received a certificate at the Town of Caledon's annual Volunteer & Citizen Achievement Awards, held April 18, 2011. Their name will also be added to the commemorative rock in the CEAC Stewardship Grove on the Trans-Canada Trail in Caledon East.

Additionally, CCC is given the honour of directing a $500 Annual Environmentalism Recognition Award to their favourite Caledon-based environmental stewardship project.

As Caledon continues to build on its reputation as "The Greenest Town in Ontario", the Town values the vision, foresight, direction and passion demonstrated by individuals and groups such as the Coalition of Concerned Citizens.

The Environmentalist of the Year Award encourages environmental stewardship in Caledon and provides recognition for outstanding community efforts. CEAC grants the award to a Caledon resident, business or organization that has made a significant effort to protect, enhance or restore the natural heritage of Caledon.
