

PROCLAMATION

Parental Alienation Awareness Day

- Whereas, To bring awareness to the public that children deserve to be loved by both parents. The Against Parental Alienation Organization and Boys and Girls Club Canada want to encourage parents to give their children a childhood that they do not have to heal from;
- Whereas, Parental alienation is often found in high conflict separations, disputes, and take advantage of the dependency and responsibility of a child;
- Whereas, Parental alienation deprives children of their rights to love and be loved by both parents and is considered a form of child abuse;
- Whereas, With awareness comes education, understanding, and the power to stop the abuse on innocent children in the crossfire of the people they love;
- Whereas, This year is the 11th annual “Bubbles of Love Day” and organizers are asking everyone to take 10 minutes out of your day at noon on April 25th, anywhere in the world to blow soap bubbles and wear royal blue to support children being loved by both parents; and
- Now, Therefore, I, Allan Thompson, Mayor of the Town of Caledon, do hereby proclaim

April 25, 2022

“Parental Alienation Awareness Day”

in the Town of Caledon and do commend its thoughtful observance to all citizens of our municipality.
