

PROCLAMATION

Hospice Palliative Care Day

- Whereas, May 1st marks Hospice Palliative Care Day during which awareness will be raised in the communities across Caledon and neighboring communities about supporting the quality of life for the living and dying through hospice palliative care services;
- Whereas, Hospice palliative care services provide the highest quality of care to residents, community clients and their loved ones through bringing comfort, love, and respect for all those they serve;
- Whereas, Hospice palliative care professionals and trained volunteers take the time to ask, listen, and ensure that the wishes of each resident, client, and family member are a priority;
- Whereas, Hospice palliative care is holistic care that supports the needs of those who are bereaved and grieving;
- Whereas, The provision of quality hospice palliative care reaffirms our belief in the essential dignity of every person, regardless of age, health, or social status, and that access to hospice palliative care is a human right; and
- Now, Therefore, I, Allan Thompson, Mayor of the Town of Caledon, do hereby proclaim
