All oral and written submission relating to the By-law were considered by Council before this decision was made.

Only a specified person, a public body, registered owner of any lands to which the by-law would apply, the minister, the appropriate approval authority, or the applicant may appeal a by-law to the Ontario Land Tribunal. A notice of appeal may not be filed by an unincorporated association or group. However, a notice of appeal may be filed in the name of an individual who is a member of the association or the group on its behalf.

No person or public body shall be added as a party to the hearing of the appeal unless, before the plan was adopted, the person or public body made oral submissions at a public meeting or written submissions to the council or, in the opinion of the Ontario Land Tribunal, there are reasonable grounds to add the person or public body as a party.

The lands are also subject to a Zoning By-law Amendment application (RZ 2024-0024).
